IMUA NOW OFFERING MEMBERS ALL ACCESS TO REMOTE EDUCATION

New York, NY, August 15, 2022 – Inland Marine Underwriters Association (IMUA) announced that the association is elevating its professional development commitment to members and will provide “all access” to remote education events at no additional cost.

In making the announcement, Kevin O’Brien, IMUA President & CEO, said, “As announced at our recent 91st Annual Meeting in Savannah, the IMUA Board of Directors approved this exclusive member benefit. The industry professionals of our member companies will now have free access to all IMUA remote education events. This includes unlimited member access to IMUA webinars, seminars, courses, papers and upcoming virtual educational events. It is another shining example of the benefits of membership.”

Members can access this IMUA service by logging into the IMUA website and clicking on the On-Demand link. Members can also click on the “All Access Learning” logo. Registration is required and there will still be a fee for “in-person, onsite events.”

The IMUA President noted that IMUA has been serving the commercial inland marine insurance industry since 1930, focused on providing education and professional development opportunities to employees of our 47-member insurance companies, 151 broker affiliates and 38 associate members.
